Thursday

6:00 p.m. – Opening Gala

Friday

9:00 a.m. – Introduction

9:15 a.m. - Heather Kreft and Andy Oxenham
Speech intelligibility in CI users with really steady maskers

10:00 a.m. - Tyler Churchill
Investigations in perception of electric fine structure

10:45 a.m. – Break

11:00 a.m. - Chris Brown
Enhancing binaural cues for bilateral cochlear implant users

11:45 a.m. - Jamie Gilbert
PRESTO: Development of a high-variability sentence test

12:30 p.m. – Lunch

1:30 p.m. – Corey Stoelb
Speech Perception with mismatched electrode insertion depths

2:15 p.m. – Matt Goupell
Evidence of contralateral masking when understanding speech with bilateral CIs

3:00 p.m. – Break

3:15 p.m. – Yingjiu Nie and Peggy Nelson
Temporal envelope interference in speech recognition

4:00 p.m. – Michael Novak
The use of event related optical signals to evaluate central auditory and language changes in cochlear implant users

4:45 p.m. – Extra time for talks that go too long

6:30 p.m. – Dinner at Sa Bai Thong Thai Cuisine
[2840 University Ave · Madison]

Saturday

9:15 a.m. – Christopher Long
Localization and automatic gain control

10:00 a.m. – Doug Sladen
Cochlear implants for the elderly: performance on complex listening tasks

10:45 a.m. – Break

11:00 a.m. – Christi Hess
Speech perception in reaching toddlers