

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimate that roughly one in six kids in the United States between the ages of three and 17 have one or more developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS; as creators and artists, employees and entrepreneurs, community leaders and elected officials, and supportive family members, friends, and neighbors, Wisconsinites with developmental disabilities are valued members of communities across our state; and

WHEREAS; Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month has been recognized annually in March since its first official designation in 1987 and, this summer, we will celebrate the 32nd anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), which prohibited discrimination against all Americans with disabilities and codified the protection of their civil rights; and

WHEREAS; as we celebrate the countless contributions of Wisconsinites with developmental disabilities, we recognize that there is more work that still needs to be done to ensure that they are treated equitably and with dignity, and we reaffirm our commitment to realizing the full promise of hope, freedom, and equality envisioned by the ADA and the laws of our state; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins individuals with developmental disabilities, advocates, and dedicated organizations across our state in working to ensure that individuals with developmental disabilities can access the full range of choices and opportunities available to live their most independent and fulfilling lives;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim March 2022 as

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES AWARENESS MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all of our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 28th day of February 2022.

TONY EVERS
